

CoP distributes sports equipment

Express News Service

Chennai, November 20

CITY Police Commissioner Letika Saran urged the members of the Arumbu Boys and Girls Clubs to become police commissioners, in the city on Sunday.

Speaking at the Children's Day celebrations organised by Aide et Action, she lauded the Boys

CHILDREN'S DAY

Club for being active and successful in many places, including Adyar, Pullyanthope and Washermanpet, and said that more materials should be provided to all the clubs.

Earlier in the day, six competitions were held in which as many as 50 children from the Police Boys and Girls Clubs participated. There were competitions in fancy dress, music, debate, drawing, quiz and essay writing.

Prizes for the winners were distributed by Letika Saran later in the evening. She also gave away gym and sports equipment worth Rs 39,559 to 10 tsunami-affected Police Boys and Girls Clubs, ICDS centres and child development centres. The children presented cultural programmes in the evening.

Sundar Raman, regional manager, Aide et Action, Chennai, Mythili Sriram, social worker and D Bharath, managing trustee, Bhoomika Trust, were among the participants.